

Isabel Miranda
Business Development Coordinator

Isabel Miranda is a professional of the International Commerce. She studied at UNIVA University in Guadalajara city, Mexico.

She has been a business woman and on the last years she has been working in the International business area of different private companies in Mexico.

She has always been interested on supporting values and ethics in any field of work, as well as the social development. During the last two years she has collaborated in the area of Human Rights, working in CHRIO (Canadian Human Rights International Organization) in the head office in Toronto, Canada. In 2016 she received the recognition for her contribution and dedication to the community. She is currently part of the CHRIO team of Public relations and International Missions.

In the last two years she has collaborated in the area of Human Rights with CHRIO (Canadian Human Rights International Organization) which is located in Canada. In this organization has supported different programs, and carries out public relations and development of missions at the international level. In 2016 he received recognition for her contribution and dedication to the community.