

AURA MARIA CARDENAS CRUZ

Executive Director of Cundinamarca Mission, Colombia

A lawyer graduated from the Free University of Colombia, a specialist in probative law at the Catholic University of Colombia and a Masters degree in Human Rights Defence and International Humanitarian Law at the tribunals and International Courts from the Santo Tomas of Colombia University. She is a former judge of the Republic of Colombia with an excellent professional track record.

Aura Maria is dedicated to the teaching of human rights and international human rights law at the Police Cadet School "General Francisco de Paula Santander in Bogota and military law at the school "Gonzalo Jimenez de Quesada in Sibate. She also prepares seminars and conferences for those interested in human rights.

As well, she is the Executive Director of the Colombo-Canadian Human Rights International Organization "CCHRIO" - Cundinamarca and Bogota Colombia Section.

Aura Maria has a great commitment to social justice and through her social and community work, she hopes to better the lives of people in need as well as the victims of the violation of human rights.

She promotes the implementation of the Human Rights Code for Colombia and the institution of the Human Rights Commission and Court for Colombia.

"If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language that goes to his heart." - Nelson Mandela