

Jessica Isabel Narcizo Chac
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
MISSION PERU

Graduated from the University Inca Garcilaso de la Vega, twenty-four (24) years of experience in Labor Law, Criminal, Civil, Administrative, graduated in the Master of Public Policy Management; I currently serve as Locadora Services at the National Commission for Drug-Free Development DEVIDA with work experience in Sub Manageress Decentralised Management II and Sub Manageress in Decentralised Management of ESSALUD III; Attorney at the Public Attorney's Office of the Comptroller General of Colombia, Advisor to the Management and Control Systems of the General Comptroller of the Republic, Former Advisor Office of the Directorate General of Immigration and Naturalization - DIGEMIN; Former Head of Logistics Urban Work Program; Deputy Public Prosecutor Ad Hoc in the National Compensation Fund for Social Development - FONCODES, Advisor Productive Management of the National Fund for Compensation and Social Development-FONCODES; Representative to the Public Prosecutor of the National Institute of Educational Infrastructure and Health - INFES; Member of the Evaluation Commission Disclaimer Resources, Reconsideration of Disciplinary Proceedings of the General Inspectorate of the Ministry of Transport and Communications; Manager of the Office of Legal Counsel of the National People's Cooperation Fund - COPOP; Director of Internal Control of the Municipality of Cañete; additional courses: participant in the Summer Course 2006 "Integration Iberoamericana, Elements of Legal Harmonization" held at the Rey Juan Carlos University (Aranjuez-Spain), training on issues related to the General Administrative Procedure Law, Labor Law, among others, participant of the Center for Higher Studies Music National CAEN, University Professor of the Technological University of Peru.

As well, she is the Executive Director of the Peruvian-Canadian Human Rights International Organization "CHRIO" -Mission Peru.

Jessica Isabel has a great commitment to social justice and through her social and community work, she hopes to better the lives of people in need as well as the victims of the violation of human rights.

She Promotes the Implementation of the Human Rights in Peru and she Approaches every challenge in an ambitious manner, as Demonstrated by in work she does in assisting vulnerable Community members on a daily basis.

She had a deep concern for the, Marginalized, helpless and suffering humanity. Her interest in providing the justice to every single defenseless, depressed, and, dejected kept growing human being passionately with the passage of time.

She has been working for the rights and democracy, and she always try to human rights Promote Among single.