

EVELYN R. PALACIOS R, Venezuelan lawyer, graduated in 1995 from Santa María University in Caracas, with postgraduate studies in Civil Procedural Law from Andres Bello Catholic University in 1999 and postgraduate studies in Labour Procedural Law from Central University of Venezuela in 2009. Both universities are located in the city of Caracas, Venezuela.

In 1996 Evelyn began private practice in her hometown Barquisimeto, Lara State. She has been a Mediator in the resolution of conflicts through mediation and conciliation; a Democrat and Defender of social y political rights. Throughout her professional career as a lawyer she had the opportunity to advocate for human rights and equality with justice and liberty.

Evelyn has worked in many areas of business administration and management. Currently, she supports the International Rotary Club projects in Lara State.

Before joining the Canadian Human Rights International Organization (CHRIO) Evelyn served at the International Rotary Club as a project manager in the State of Lara.