

ALFONSO FLÓREZ ZAMBRANO

As Executive Director at Canadian Human Rights International Organization CHRIO Mission Sweden, Alfonso leads CHRIO efforts to ensure that human rights defenders can work free from harm and interference, engaging with the foreign governments and with other partners to end threats and obstacles to human rights work.

He was born on June 18, 1966 in Cartagena (Bolívar, Colombia), nationalized Swedish, living in Stockholm (Sweden). Alfonso has also worked at the Colombian Navy. Ex-Navy officer (23 years). Occupies among others, the position of Officer of integral action from which he promoted the defense and proper implementation of Human Rights and International Human Rights. He developed the following courses: Instructor International Human Rights Course for Staff Human Rights, Human Rights Seminar seminars, DDR and Peace processes.

Currently consultant and international instructor in topics such as: Transnational Crime, Tracking Weapons Ammunition and Explosives DDR IHL

Alfonso joined CHRIO in 2013, and is valued and dedicated member of our team who believes that helping others is what he was born to do and around the world.