

Calixto Suarez Villafane
Director Human Rights of Indigenous Peoples Program

THE MESSENGER OF THE WORLD'S GUARDIAN TRIBE

Calixto is the guardian and spiritual leader of the very ancient culture of the Arhuacos. In this culture, the role of healer, wise-one and shaman are connected. He is the messenger of peace for institutions at an international level and the representative of the indigenous peoples of the world.

He travels around the world to share the ancestral message of his Sacred Land, the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta, Colombia. He brings a message of peace, of living in harmony and equilibrium with nature. Calixto does this at conferences, schools and at multicultural and international gatherings.

Who are the Aruhacos?

They are an indigenous tribe, one of the 4 Descendentes of the Tayrona people – a pre-Columbian civilization. As with the Aruhacos, the Kogui, Wiwa and Kankuamo Live on the sacred land, on the snowly peaks of the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta. These tribes are the most complete representatives of the pre-Columbian civilizations in existence in the region. They are very private and jealous of the sacredness of the land and of the costumes of their ancestral brothers. They are guided by cosmic laws and even to this day they are not open to the outside world. However, over the last few years, they have come to the realization that they have to establish relationships with the West in order to rightly fulfill their role as Elder Brothers of humanity. It is in this way that Calixto began his worldwide mission to save our planet and for peace for Humanity.

Conferences and Schools

As a leader who is descended from an ancient civilization, Calixto sees the world from his wise perspective: "I believe that human beings are afraid of living in the here and now. But in this universe only the present exists. If we are conscious and willing to live it, we will be making a giant leap forward. When the past intrudes or materializes into the present, it is time to embrace these experiences of the past, purify them and let them go. I believe that only in this way will a new humanity be created so that we can return to the Unity. To be the Unity is the total acceptance of how we are.”
