

Mahmuda Begum
Executive Director Mission Bangladesh

Mahmuda currently living in Dhaka Bangladesh. She is working actively as a defender of human rights. She has been very vocal on the issues related to the human rights and the injustices faced by the marginalized classes of the society. She is seen as a great support to the voiceless people of this country. It is pertinent to mention that and she fought several cases with reference to human rights issues and won them. She has also devoted her time to “Badhon” A non-profit blood donation organization that was connected with her university. She is seeking to acquire a challenging position in a well reputed organization that requires professional, administrative and courageous leadership skills which would offer her the opportunity to build a career.

As well, she is the Executive Director of the Canadian Human Rights International Organization CHRIO Mission Bangladesh.

Mahmuda has a great commitment to social justice and through her social and Community work, she hopes to better the lives of people in need as well as the victims of the violation of human rights.