

David Hernandez

Project Consultant

David Hernández born on April 1, 1956 in Matanzas, Cuba.

His first studies were in the José Martí School in Jovellanos, Matanzas for elementary then, up to grade 13 in schools in the area.

Admitted to the Faculty of Economics of the University of Matanzas. Later he entered the Moscow State University where he graduated in 1981 in Political Economy specializing in "Economics of developing countries" He received the title of Master in Economic Sciences and Professor of Political Economy.

Worked as Professor of Economics at the University of Havana and Matanzas. In 1986 he started working in the Tourism Industry in different positions being the latest Director of Recreation and Public Relations for Gaviota S.A.

He immigrated to Canada in 1995 where he currently resides. He was a Spanish Language instructor at the North Board of Education. He obtained a Software Specialist diploma at Liaison College where he was an instructor. He worked for Technion Communications (Microsoft contracts) as Technical Support and Customer Service. He was working for Siemens Canada as Technical support in different contracts (Toshiba, Nike, etc.)

By 2010 went to work in Amman Jordan for Amana tours tour operator in a position of marketing specialist developing Eastern Europe Markets

In June 2012, he graduated from AoL (Academy of Learning of Toronto) in International Hospitality Management and Tourism and AHLEI International Hospitality Management.

In this year he began working as a volunteer at the Canadian Human Rights International as Executive Director until the end of 2016.

Worked as a columnist for the newspaper "America Latina" in Toronto.

He has volunteered in other organizations as Collective Human Rights Defenders "Laura Acosta" International Organization COHURIDELA; Now David is Project Consultant at CHRIO.