

Eleana Jaramillo Restrepo

Psychology
Human Rights Specialist

Your passion for service and help for those most in need...

Eleana, worked in Colombia for 17 years in the Armed Forces and currently the Executive Director of the Canadian Human Rights International Organization CHRIO Mission Quebec.

Eleana is linked to CHRIO in order to develop projects that promote respect for human rights and to ensure the integration of minority communities in Quebec.

She is a founder of the non-profit organization Hispanidad Québec, which seeks to promote the unity, solidarity and participation of the various Hispanic communities in Québec through their social actors and entities, to preserve our "Hispanic Heritage". All within a perspective of participation, rapprochement and coexistence with the Québec host society and achieve through unity and strengthening a "Solid and Visible Hispanic Community".

In 2016, the First Hispanic Forum was held: Under an academic framework, a meeting place was created for the main Hispanic actors, the university sector, social and governmental entities, who are involved in the search for strengthening, Solidarity and brotherhood of the different Spanish-speaking communities in the province of Quebec. The objective is to evaluate the state of the communities, from the different areas of interest such as: The social area, the economic area, the academic area and especially the issue of Human Rights of Immigrants.

Eleana has a great commitment to social justice and through her social and community work, she hopes to better the lives of people in need as well as the victims of the human rights violations.

MISSION QUEBEC