

Lissette Teran
Fundraising Officer & Grants Manager

Lissette Teran is a topnotch Engineer with a Project Management Diploma, Fundraising Management Certificate, and more than 10 years of experience working in leading with project in the environmental area and in non-profit organizations.

The top skills that she possesses are: managerial, leadership, research capacity building, and an uncommon ability to solve all the issues during the projects' execution.

Additionally, her positive attitude, strong networking ability and deep computer knowledge (Microsoft Environment Programs, Grant Connect-Imagen Canada, Google Drive, and others) that have been her best tools that she has in order to face every challenge in her career.

This valuable candidate has an unique combination of skills and experience that she had learned and applied during her professional life, in positions such as Fundraising Developer and Administrative/Project Coordinator.

Lissette Teran is the kind of professional that is focused-oriented in finishing the projects according with the company's goals, budget and time.

Lissette is a volunteer at Canadian Human Rights International organization CHRIO and Collective Human Rights Defenders "Laura Acosta" International Organization COHURIDELA as Fundraising Officer & Grants Manager.