

Qusay Raba'h

B.A, LLB, LLM, LPC.

Goodwill Ambassador

Missions Europe Director

Executive Director - Mission England

Mr. Raba'h is a lawyer with an astonishing interest in Public International Law and Political Science. He was born in a Palestinian community in Amman, Jordan but subsequently immigrated alongside his family to Ontario, Canada. Thus-far, he has attained his Bachelor's Degree with Honours as a Specialist in Political Science from The University of Toronto, an LLB from the University of Exeter and his LLM and LPC from The University of London-Moorgate.

At the start his career he was given incomparable mentoring by the Founder and the Director of the Canadian Human Rights International Organization; Mario Guilombo. During his time with CHRIO, he was able to aid countless individuals across the world in their legal matters, and the gratitude he received from such individuals has been immensely treasured. He currently serves in the position as the Executive Director of the Canadian Human Rights

International Organization in Europe and Executive Director - Mission England.

With this role he intends to continue in the current projection of his career by maintaining the universal ideals enshrined within the Universal Declaration of Human Rights alongside other international instruments which preserve human dignity and the right to self-determination.

Alongside his passion for law, he also shares an equivalent passion for art in all its forms. He is the lead-vocalist and songwriter with the project called 'Stasis Lure' and is additionally an artist/painter. Furthermore, he greatly enjoys staying active by preserving a habitual, challenging physical exercise regime. Additionally Qusay was designed as Goodwill Ambassador and International Legal Counsel and Human Rights Initiative Director at the Collective of Human Rights Defenders "Laura Acosta" International Organization COHURIDELA.
