

Rafael Sebastian Gil Ospino

Project Manager for Latin America.

Rafael was born in Cartagena, Colombia. His outstanding academic record which remarkably shows his love towards his studies lead him to complete his studies in Economics at Universidad Del Norte in Barranquilla, Colombia. His love for economics lead him to apply his knowledge to social work trying to help others with his remarkable performance. Rafael has been working for to the Collective Human Rights Defender “Laura Acosta” International Organization (COHURIDELA) and the Canadian Human Rights International Organization (CHRIO) since 2011 when he joined as a Volunteer; his exceptional work and numerous awards helped him to become the Finance Assistant and currently he works as Project Manager for Latin America.
