

Silvana Ayuso

Silvana Ayuso is a legal adviser originally from Guatemala. She has studied in Guatemala, Chile and the United States. She graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Social and Judicial Sciences (Law) at Rafael Landívar University in Guatemala, a Master's degree in International Relations and Diplomacy at University of Valparaíso, Chile, and Bachelor's degree in Business Administration at Midway College, University of Kentucky.

Silvana's areas of expertise include Law, International Relations and Diplomacy, Political Science and Conflict and Resolution. She is also a member of the National Council for Peace and Order and a Legal Adviser of the National Congress in Guatemala. Before joining CHRIO, Silvana had worked for the United States Embassy in Guatemala, the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Guatemala and the Government of Guatemala as Ambassador for Peace.

Silvana was a member of the National Council for the Implementation of the Peace Accords (CNAP) and presided over the Commission on Human Rights, Security and Justice.

Silvana is a well known advocate of human rights, social worker and a humanitarian with multiple recognitions as:

Ambassador for Peace: appointed by the Ministry of Peace, Presidency of the Republic, for her joint efforts for the implementation of the Peace Accords.

Awarded the Monja Blanca Medal by the Ministry of National Defense of the República of Guatemala for her team work and individual support of topics of rescue for the Guatemalan Army Humanitarian Recue Unit and other institutions.